

Delaware River Romance

Words and Music by Roger Deitz

I left my heart on a river bank green
A long, long time ago
With the prettiest girl I've ever seen
On the laziest river I know

Her smile as broad as the river was wide
Her kiss like the river was long
We'd sit and watch the world float by
And sing a little river song . . . (Chorus)

Chorus:

I'm on my way
To see my love, I know
She's waiting where
The Delaware's waters flow

We're on our way
To heaven soon I know
It's heaven where
The Delaware's waters flow

We'd walk across the river bridge
I held her hand in mine
She told me that she loved me true
It made me feel so fine

We'd watch the water down below
Glisten in the afternoon sun
Then we'd watch that river disappear
When our Delaware day was done . . . (Chorus)

Now married be my love and me
We've children of our own
We all sit on that river bank
Singing songs and skipping stones

Our children watch the world float by
And dream about roaming free
May they fall in love and sing this song
Just like their ma and me . . . (Chorus)
